It's Up To You ..

It is with disappointment and regret that the Board announces that this issue is likely to be the last newspaper in this format.

Of the approximately 2,300 papers we have been mailing, we have received some 250 subscriptions (and to those people our most sincere and heartfelt thanks).

Since we require a minimum of 1,000 subscriptions to make the present type of newspaper feasible, it is obvious that unless we receive another 750 by September 1st, we will have funds only to publish a newsletter for those who have subscribed.

As you will all realize, there has not been a paper since the April issue. While many factors entered into it, the largest single reason is that there just hasn't been enough money; postage alone, at 15¢ per paper, is $345.00.

We have not used the funds received for subscriptions because we feel that many will wish to have a refund.

With a new location and building in the offing this is one of the most important periods in the life of the Scandinavian Centre; we want to keep all our shareholders informed of developments as they happen, BUT, all your Board of Directors can do is the best it can — in the long run it's a matter of what you, the shareholder, wish to support.

SPLINTERS from the BOARD

CENTRE OPERATIONS—

January was, as usual and expected, a very slow month. February usually picks up considerably, but because of cancellations, including Scandapades, we showed a loss. Since that time, although there have been cancellations by some of the ethnic groups, things have picked up and we are now in a much better financial position.

We are most fortunate to have another fine Scandinavian chef, especially since the Department of Manpower and Immigration will no longer entertain applications for landed immigrant status from European chefs. Jens Grøn is coping with our inadequate kitchen facilities and producing excellent meals.

And our Manager, Børge Velling, is off to Denmark this month to get married — we think he figures two can live as cheaply as all that air-fare. The Board of Directors extends its very best wishes to Børge and Jane and looks forward to having her with us.

DEVELOPMENT—

In March a Building and Finance Committee was appointed consisting of Knud Holm-Pedersen, Fred Minsos, Doug Peterson, Borge Velling and Joergen Windfeldt. They have held several productive meetings, including one with our lawyer who is negotiating with the City of Edmonton with regard to the land they will be expropriating; we hope that this matter will be settled satisfactorily before too much longer.

The committee is looking at all the possibilities, and a definite location should also be decided in the fairly near future.

Per Nielsen and Knut Svidal have accepted appointments to serve on a Fund-Raising Committee and will be reporting to the August meeting of the Board.

NEWSPAPER—

The front page really says it all! With the relatively small number of subscriptions we will be able to afford only a newsletter type of communication to our subscribers. Printing is based on a minimum charge — if we need fewer papers we still must pay the minimum — which raises the cost per paper considerably.

The newspaper takes a lot of time to prepare and mail — it's pretty difficult to be enthusiastic about it when so few shareholders really care about it. Again, our sincere appreciation to those who have supported the News.

HERITAGE DAYS — AUGUST 5 AND 6—

Co-ordinated by Beulah Hinton, all the groups are enthusiastically preparing for Heritage Days in Hawrelak Park on the August long weekend. Plan to have a look on either day — you'll really enjoy yourself.

KLONDIKE DANCE—

For the first time the Centre is joining with the Danish Society in sponsoring this fun evening on July 21st. Absolutely EVERYONE IS WELCOME, and we hope you'll bring your friends and/or K-Days visitors out for a great time!

RESIGNATION—

With a great deal of regret your Board has accepted the resignation of Gladys Clark. Gladys has always been a hard and faithful worker, and we will miss her.

Our thanks to Astrid Hope who has accepted appointment to the Board for the balance of the year.

It is with sadness that we note the recent passing of a staunch supporter and faithful worker in the cause of Scandinavian culture — Della Roland.

VASA LODGE SKANDIA

by Gertie Holmgren

Hi! — forgive me, I missed you last month.

At our regular April meeting held in the Nordic Room six new members were initiated into our order — Patricia, Terry Lee, Norman, Donald and Diana DeSautel, and Shelley Runcer.

It was reported that Irma McMasters had had a fall; I'm happy to say that at this writing she is up and about, but she did suffer a lot of pain for a while.

The meeting was very well attended. Guests included District Master Lloyd Eriksson from Calgary Lodge Branting, and Member of the Executive Board, Bert Johnson, also from Branting Lodge.

SPORTS—

On March 3rd the annual District Curling Bonspiel was held at the St. Albert Curling Rink with Skandia Lodge as hosts.

At the banquet held at the St. Albert Community Hall the winning team was presented with the trophy. The Milton Fawcett team was in first place — Milton Fawcett, skip; Erling Winquist, third; Verle Anderson, second; Bert Watson, lead.

Two rinks tied for second place — the Bob Lewis team of Edmonton and the Jerry Hanson team of Branting Lodge, Calgary. Calgary Roll-Off—

Skandia bowlers did very well this year at the Roll-Off in Calgary on April 7th. In the evening a banquet was held in the Scandinavian Hall at which time the winners were presented with trophies.

The Lennart Petersson team from Skandia Lodge, Edmonton, was in first place with 3,024 points and received a trophy presented by District Master Lloyd Eriksson. The team consisted of Doreen Nyroos (who really bowled up a storm), Ray Nyroos, Calvin Berg, and Lennart and Joan Petersson.

The ladies' high single was won by Doreen Nyroos with 283 points, and ladies' high triple by Tammy Wicklund of Lethbridge Lodge with 683

Buford Lodge

Get well wishes to Mr. Bernard Johnson of Warburg who is home again after spending eight days in the Leduc Hospital undergoing tests.

Kenny Johnson has completed his exams at the University of Alberta and has a summer job with the Edmonton Power Company.

At the last Buford Vasa Lodge meeting, Anthony Lefsrud, representing the Thorsby Homecoming Committee, told the members about all the plans for points.

Men's high single went to Brian Waterman of Branting Lodge, Calgary, with 266 points, and men's high triple to Karl Leander of Skandia with 641 points.

Greetings from the Grand Master were extended by Grand Lodge Deputy, Glen Eliasson, who also reminded us of the District 18 Convention to be held in Edmonton in June.

Greetings and thanks were also extended by the various lodges.

TRAVELLERS—

Towards the end of February Winnie Pearson and I spent a few days in Las Vegas with the one-armed bandits.

Milton and Virgie Fawcett spent a few days in Kamloops visiting friends.

Ruth Bergquist spent several weeks at Point Roberts with Anna and Al Rosinski in March the celebration on July 13, 14 and 15.

He suggested that the Lodge members build a float for the Parade. A committee for this job was appointed, consisting of Anthony Lefsrud, Albin Markstedt, Betty Hanson, Dolores Johnson, George Modin and Erling Lunde.

The members also decided to get a table for the Farmers' Market in Thorsby that weekend.

Many of the Buford Lodge members attended the funeral of Dorothy Hanson at Breton on May 3rd.

Mrs. Dorothy Doreen Hanson of Breton died in an Edmonton hospital on May 1, 1979.

She is survived by her loving husband, Hans; son, Clifford; two daughters, Janet Young and Anna Lemieux; four grandchildren; her mother, Mrs. Marie Delitzoy; two sisters, Joyce Midwinter and Lena Hanson; and three brothers, Harry, Roy and William Delitzoy.

Dorothy will long be remembered for her quiet nature and willingness to help when needed.

Active in church and community affairs, she was also a member of the Order of the Royal Purple and Buford Lodge, Vasa Order of America.

The funeral took place at the Breton Community Centre on Thursday, May 3, at 2:00 p.m., with Rev. J. Forster officiating. The organist was Mrs. T. Wil-helping baby Ryan get a good start in this world. Ryan was born on March 7th and weighed 7 lbs. 7 ozs.

Glen Eliasson and I travelled to White Rock to surprise Bert Lundgren on his 70th birthday on March 24th.

Betty and Magnus Pearson of Vancouver spent five weeks in the U.S. visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Gordon and Shirley Pearson and families of Tustin, California — also their daughter and son-in-law, Elva and Ren Frederking and families of Grass Valley, California.

They are now home in Vancouver.

Marjorie Correll and son Gale of Vancouver motored to California to visit her brother, Gordon, and his family of Tustin, California, and her sister, Elva, and her family of Grass Valley, California.

Bert and Margaret Lundgren of White Rock, B.C., spent a week in Edmonton visiting with Margaret's sons and their families. While here they attended the Bowling Roll-Off in Calgary.

Oscar and Winnie Pearson spent the spring break at Burnaby visiting their daughter Rita and son-in-law Bob Brown.

My Impression of Hawaii

by Astrid Winquist

To see this 'island in the sun' that we hear so much about — where so many people go for their winter vacations to get away from the cold and snow — was a dream come true!

We left Calgary on a cold, cloudy morning in February on one of those big Wardair planes. We had a beautiful flight — good service, food and drinks — and six hours later we landed in Honolulu in the warm, moist wonderful air. There were big palm trees and beautiful flowers in bloom, and only six hours away there was snow!

We changed planes for a short twenty-minute flight across the water to the island of Maui.

It had always been my wish to see this place, and I am really grateful to my daughters and their husbands, and my granddaughter and her husband, for taking me with them.

Rudy and Joe rented a car, as you need one to get around to shopping centres.

We did not have the best of weather — lots of rain and not much sun — so we didn't have to worry about getting a sun-burn.

One day we drove out to a little village called Lahaina, a really historic place where Captain James Cook landed in 1778.

Another day we bought the Honolulu Advertiser and found that Governor George Ariyashi had proclaimed this day to be the first annual Scandinavian Day in Hawaii to commemorate the Scandinavians' arrival in Hawaii. Ninety-eight years ago, on February 14, 1881, the first large group of Scandinavians — mostly Norwegians — arrived from Drammen, Norway. They sailed into Lahaina, Maui, on board the Norwegian bark, Beta, and began a new life in the Sandwich Islands. The article included Scandinavian recipes such as potato lefse, spritsar and potato sausage.

I did not find any Scandinavian names in the phone book, so they must have either moved or changed their names.

I'm not very good at writing but I wanted to tell you about my experience. I sincerely hope to go back at least once more to see Waikiki.

AUGUSTANA CELEBRATES 50TH ANNIVERSARY

Augustana Lutheran Church celebrates its 50th Anniversary this year.

In honour of the occasion the members of the congregation have celebrated on several occasions.

Last fall a dinner was held in the church basement at which members reminisced about the first twenty-five years.

In February there was a potluck supper at which time events of the last twenty-five years were recalled.

In his summary, Einar Carlson stated that there were many professional young people in our congregation so our future was in good hands.

Trudy Sjoberg spoke about her early years as Pastor Sjoberg's wife and their residence at the parsonage.

She spoke about 'George the Ghost', the Catacombs, and the mice which scampered about on Sunday evenings during their liams.

Baker Funeral Chapel Ltd. was in charge of arrangements and interment was in the Breton Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Ted Grzyb, John Hough, Harry Staudt, Theo Westling, George Shave and Jack Lauber.

Scrabble games. Some members thought the accommodations inadequate, but she was young and happy, and everything was just great.

On April 22nd the Junior Choir presented a Cantata to Augustana Lutheran Church on the occasion of their 50th anniversary.

Get on Board, Children (or what do you do on a rainy day in an ark?) was a lively forty-five minutes of singing and was very well presented by the enthusiastic group of young people.

The highlight of the celebration will be an Anniversary Dinner on May 26th at the University of Alberta Faculty Club; the guest speaker will be Pastor Don Sjoberg.

On Friday evening, May 25th, there will be a music night at the church, and the wall-hanging which has been ordered to commemorate the occasion will be dedicated. The weaver will be present, and friends of Augustana are welcome.

On June 22nd the Swedish Ambassador, Per Anger, will be present at church to make another dedication to commemorate the 50th anniversary.

Congratulations to the congregation of Augustana, and continued success in the future!

Following their general meeting on May 23rd, Solglyt Lodge held a wine and cheese party.

During the evening Gunn Espeland was crowned Queen by outgoing Jennifer Kristensen.

In her acceptance speech she stated that she would make every effort to promote Norwegian culture.

Congratulations, Gunn!

DEN MA FIDLIG KROKES SOM GOD KROK SKAL BLI

You have to start early to make a good one

Out Of The Woods

by Bob Burt

Torske Klubben members thoroughly enjoy their monthly get-togethers and their akavit, but most of all they enjoy their torsk (codfish) supper.

Interest in this men's Supper Club is not waning — over 40 members participate in the good fellowship and enjoy the excellent speakers.

The April 3rd meeting was no exception when Boss Ken Domier introduced a true Norwegian — Kare Hellum — who came from Norway some 24 years ago.

He received a degree in Forestry at U.B.C., his Masters and Doctorate at the University of Michigan.

He worked in federal forest research and then for the province in the Alberta Forest Service. He later joined the staff of the University of Alberta in 1976 as Associate Professor, teaching Silviculture.

In his talk on reforestation he stated: "This is something we have neglected to think about and have thought might go away if we avoid it. It must become a way of life — we need to think ecologically and to work with nature rather than in spite of her."

Reforestation is a way of life in Scandinavian countries: Sweden planted 450 MM seedlings in 1976, Norway 80 MM, Finland 220 MM — Canada planted only 137 MM (B.C. 63 MM, Ontario 40 MM, New Brunswick 20 MM, Quebec 7.5 MM, Alberta 6.5 MM).

Alberta forests cover 60% of the land area, and Alberta is 3 times the size of Norway which has only about 20% forest cover, yet Norway plants over 12 times the number of seedlings.

We need to do far more reforestation than we do presently.

Kris Nyhus thanked Dr. Hellum for his most interesting talk.

The May meeting will host mountain climber Randy Morse as guest speaker; he will talk on mountain climbing in Canada and Norway.

TWO EACH FOR RACEY RASCAL AND DUSTY SWINGER

THE WILLING HORSES IN THE RACE SPECTACULAR

by Bob Burt

At Solglyt's General Meeting held on April 11th a motion was passed that annual dues increase to $12.00 commencing with the new year.

Mrs. Audrey Harvey, secretary of Sleipner Lodge No. 8 of Vancouver brought greetings from the coast; she said it seemed universal that general meetings are poorly attended.

After the meeting Knut and Rose Svidal entertained with 'The Races'.

Horses chosen to run were:
No. 1 — Racey Rascal
Gary Johnson

No. 2 — Kool Kat
Evelyn Johnson
No. 3 — Flying Clem
Roy Sundby
No. 4 — Yumping Yane
Edna Guiltner
No. 5 — Dusty Swinger
Harry Huser
No. 6 — Firey Doll
Ken Domier

Play money was passed out and the races were on! The dice were rolled by Del Melsness and Rose Svidal, moving the horses through obstacles and on to the finish.

Kool Kate was the winner of the first race; Racey Rascal won the second and fifth races; and Dusty Swinger took the third and fourth races.

The bystanders were enthusiastic, and Min Strand was the big winner on a heavy bet winning $9,650 and the key ring prize.

Dave Oyen, after a series of eliminations, received a bottle of wine as the winner of all those who never won a bet.

Cheese and Norwegian pastry were served with the coffee. A racey punch was available during the race session.

It was a truly fun evening.

My sincere thanks to the Finnish Society of Edmonton for the lovely flowers I received while in hospital recently.

-- Sylvia Kankkunen

The Finnish Society held its annual fishing derby at the end of March at Lac Ste. Anne, Westcove.

Many eager fisher-people showed up during the beautiful Sunday, and although lots of fish were pulled out, only a few people received the trophies. (Some didn't get any fish.)

The winners were—

- Ladies:
- 1st — Mirja Tommila
 - 2nd — Anneli Thurlin
 - 3rd — Sirkka Nahkuri

- Men:
- 1st — Arvo Ruuth
 - 2nd — Pauli Vanhala
 - 3rd — Pentti Sipari

Congratulations to the winners . . . trophies will be presented at the Vappu Dance.

The annual Juhannus picnic has not been announced yet but a bulletin will be sent out as soon as the location is known.

The Finnish Folk Dance group has been busy practising throughout the spring. The goal is the ITV production Village Square, and the annual Vappu Dance.

Our deep sympathies are extended to relatives of Emanuel Maki, who passed away recently.

The world without my beloved Eddie is a rather desolate place just now; the only bright spots in that desolation are those who care.

I thank you belatedly for your expression of sympathy in your February issue. It is no small measure of consolation to realize that you share my sorrow.

Individually and collectively I appreciate your thoughtfulness. Gratefully,

--Aune Guichon

We finally got this fancy new oven installed with built-in fan, etc., and what happened? Yup . . . it blew up on the first day. The electrician said it was a "typical Blue Monday machine". So now we must wait 3 to 4 weeks to get it back — hopefully on a Wednesday!

Well, I suppose you've heard by now that the Larsen boys were very bad — juvenile delinquents you know —

Well one day they stole a pig from farmer Johnson, and they went on down the road with the pig, but farmer Johnson outsmarted them and called the sheriff. The sheriff set up a road block, but the Larsen boys saw it up in front of them.

Lars Larsen says to his brother, "What shall we do with the pig?"

Says Brother Sven, "We'll just put the pig in the front seat with us and you put your bat on his head."

So that's just what they did — and when they came to the road block of course the sheriff stopped them — and he says, "What's your name there — you driving the truck?"

"Lars Larsen," replied the driver.

"And you there — who are you there sitting looking out the window?" asked the sheriff.

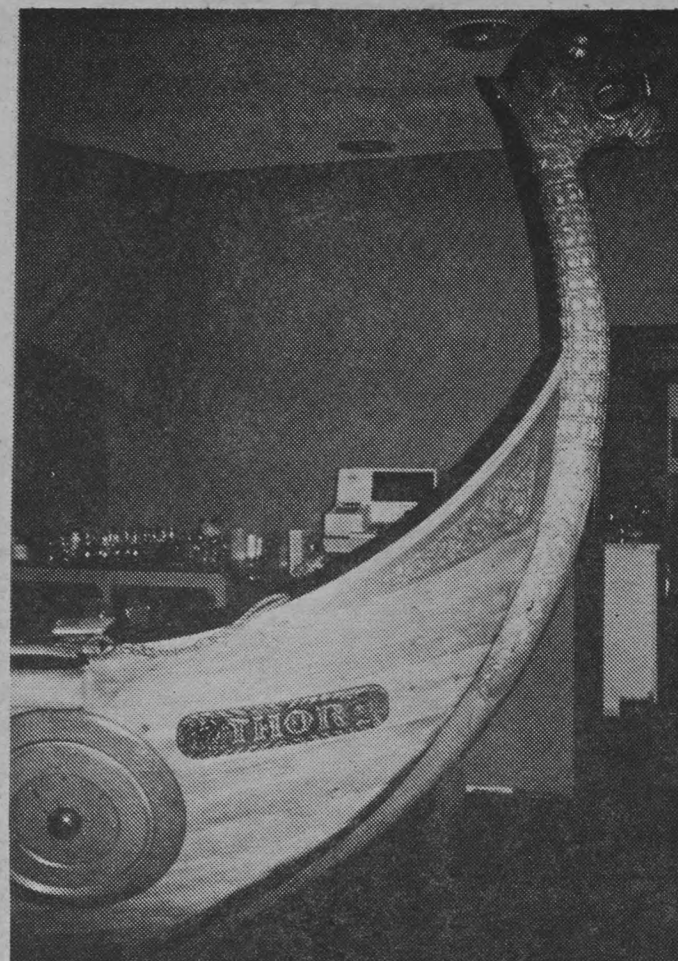

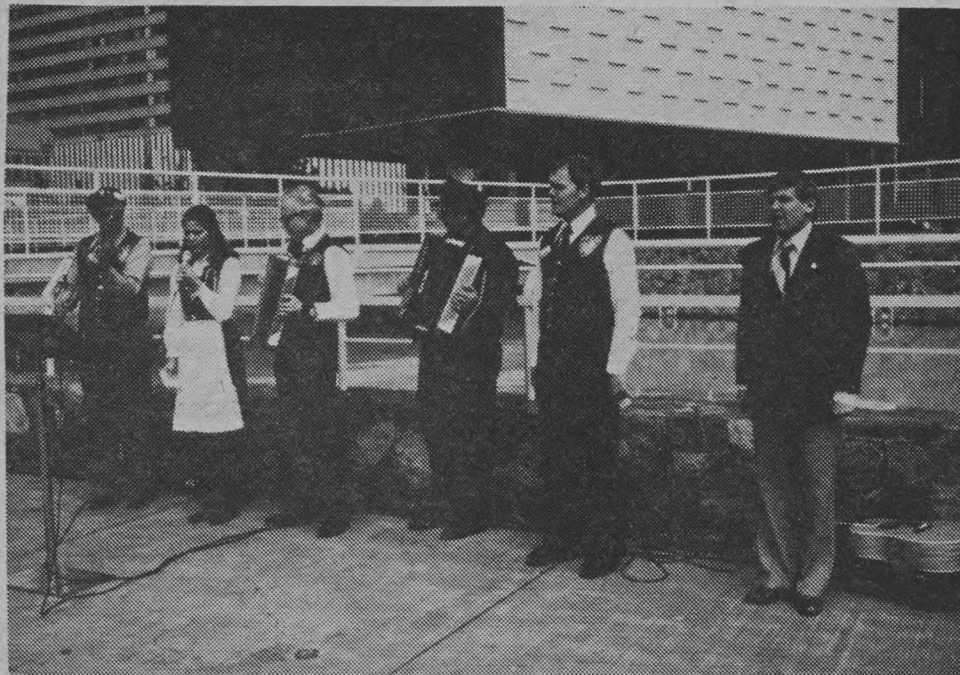

"Sven Larsen," was the answer.

"And you — you sitting there in the middle with the bat on your head — who are you?" asked the sheriff.

"Oink," said the pig.

"Okay, go on through," says the sheriff. Then he turns to his deputy and says, "Ya, do you know what — that Oink Larsen is the homeliest man I've ever seen!"

SYTTENDE MAI - 1979

Celebrations at the Vega—

Following the flag-raising ceremony many chose to celebrate by attending a luncheon at the Hotel Vega (recently opened by the Grudes).

In the lobby they were met with a display to fit the occasion — artifacts, needlecrafts, and a plethora of flags! A birch tree stood in the centre virtually loaded with Norwegian flags.

The Vega also had a very special happening on May 17th; the Longboat Pub was opened.

The Freeloaders were invited to entertain for the opening, and Norwegian tunes were in abundance. Jan Grude, along with Jennifer Kristensen, christened the longboat.

This unique bar is modelled on a Viking boat, with intricately carved dragon head and tail, and numerous carved shields along the front of the bar, complete with sail and ropes overhead — and again the Norwegian flag took its place.

The boat was named Thor in memory of the Grudes' son, Tore. Rather than break the champagne bottle across the bow, it was opened, the champagne served, and a toast was given to which Else Grude responded.

Syttende Mai Dinner—

The elegant Grieg Dining Lounge saw an influx of Sons of Norway members to join in the Syttende Mai dinner, served buffet style. The delicious meal was made even more pleasurable by the light classical stylings of the pianist at the grand piano.

Solglyt Lodge took the opportunity to make two presentations — one to honour Betty and Wally Broen on their recently-celebrated 25th anniversary — and one to Astrid Hope to mark her 25th anniversary with the Lodge.

Til lykke med dagen or congratulations were the most repeated words of the day!

by Astrid Hope

The day was glorious when, on May 17th, Syttende Mai, a really good crowd assembled at Edmonton's City Hall for the seventh annual flag-raising ceremony.

This year many more gaily-embroidered bunads (costumes), representing different areas of Norway, were evident, being worn by children as well as adults — most holding Norwegian flags.

Significant for Norwegians—

May 17th is a happy day! It has special significance for Norwegians because it was on that date in 1814, at Eidsvoll, that Norway gained its independence.

The ceremony was opened by Gary Johnson, President of Solglyt Lodge, Sons of Norway, and Queen Jennifer Kristensen led the singing of O' Canada.

After brief opening remarks, Gary introduced Kare Askild, social activities co-ordinator for the Nordic Society, and Arne Johannessen, Norwegian Consul; each gave a brief talk befitting the occasion.

Mayor Cec Purves was introduced next, and he brought greetings, both personal and on behalf of the City of Edmonton. Mayor Purves stated that he appreciated the opportunity to extend greetings to the Norwegian community and thought that it was indeed appropriate to set May 17th aside in commemoration of Norway's Constitution Day.

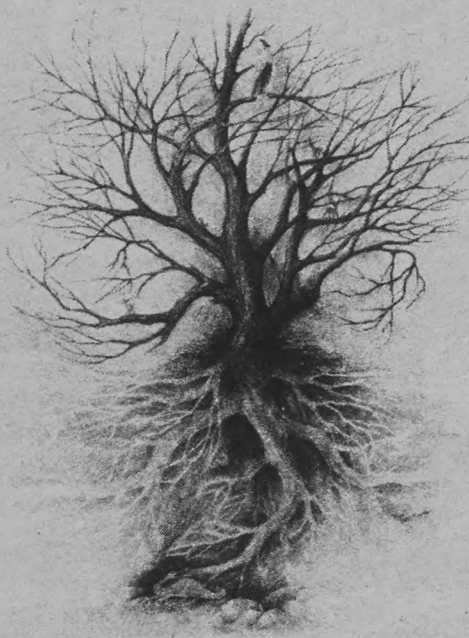

During the raising of the Norwegian flag Ja vi elsker was sung by Irene Hovde, with everyone joining in.

The red, white and blue Norwegian flag flew majestically on the arm below the Canadian flag for the rest of the day. Strains of Norwegian music, played by Solglyt's Freeloaders, continued to fill the air, emphasizing the happy spirit of this meaningful day.

The Myth of Yggdrasil

A MAGNIFICENT ash tree stood at the center of the universe. The branches of this great tree, Yggdrasil, reached over the nine worlds of ancient Scandinavia and even up into the heavens. Three major roots went out from the world tree — the first root was in Asgard, the home of the Aesir gods. Here the gods met each day and held their court of law to discuss and settle disputes and questionings.

The second root was in Jotunheim with the Frost giants; and the third root reached down into Niflheim, the mist-realm. In this cold, dreary region, the great serpent of the underworld, Nidhogg, gnawed the root and weakened the tree. At the top of the world sat an eagle, Vedfolnir. No thing in any of the nine worlds escaped his piercing eyes and All father Odin came often, listening to what the eagle had to say. It was said that when Vedfolnir flapped his wings at the top of the world tree, he set the winds to blowing on Middle Earth.

The stave churches may have been patterned after the world tree. The series of roofs reach like canopies of leaves to the sky and within the churches, the main pillars rise like giant tree trunks to support the weight of the structure. H. R. Ellis Davidson, widely-respected mythologist, had this to say about the ash tree: "While the worlds perish and the gods are slain, the tree continues through the ages, (sheltering and giving) birth to new life."

Finland's oldest city and former capital, Turku, is celebrating her 750th birthday during this year and Turku Castle, the 14th century showplace (above) will be the site of many year-long functions open to visitors. The interior of the medieval structure, recently restored, belies the Castle's age; it is a dramatic blending of the old and new.

EXPLORING SWEDEN'S VAST COUNTRYSIDE is easy thanks to the new 'Go-As-You-Please' hotel and car rental cheque system. Motorists can stay in the castle-like Golden Otter Hotel-Motel complex on the shores of Lake Vattern in south-central Sweden and enjoy a magnificent view.

SPECIAL RECOGNITION

by Astrid Hope

At this time we Norwegians give special recognition to the International Year of the Child. When we celebrate Syttende whether along the street to the King's Castle, schools, etc., with bands playing, singing national songs.

Mai, it is always a special day for children in Norway. Hundreds of them march, waving flags —

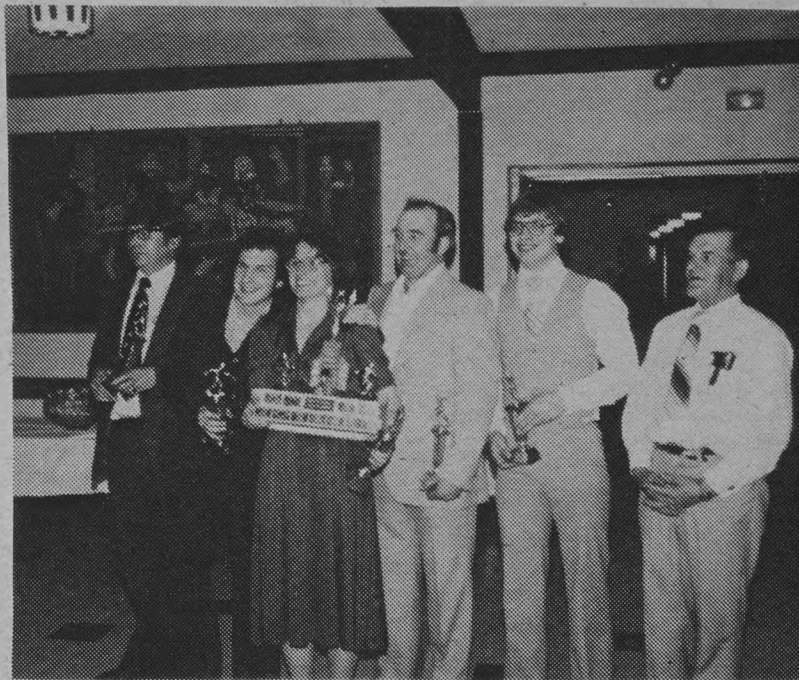

Our children are our future, and special attention should be given to instilling in them a right sense of direction. Let us keep our heritage alive and make certain that our children and the generations of the future will know their roots and the culture of their forefathers.

There is a Norwegian saying: Stor arv det er for mannen as godt folk vera food — it is a great heritage to be born of good people.

Here is a verse I'd like to pass along—

*If a child lives with criticism,
He learns to condemn.
If a child lives with hostility,
He learns to fight.
If a child lives with ridicule,
He learns to be shy.
If a child lives with shame,
He learns to feel guilty.
If a child lives with tolerance,
He learns to be patient.
If a child lives with encouragement,
He learns confidence.
If a child lives with praise,
He learns to appreciate.
If a child lives with fairness,
He learns justice.
If a child lives with security,
He learns to have faith.
If a child lives with approval,
He learns to like himself.
If a child lives with acceptance and friendship,
He learns to find love in the world.*

Multicultural Centre Demonstrates Bobbin Lace

by Susanne Balslev

During Canada Week the Stony Plain Multicultural Centre featured a most interesting display and demonstration on making bobbin lace (Kniplinger/Knypplinger/Spetsar).

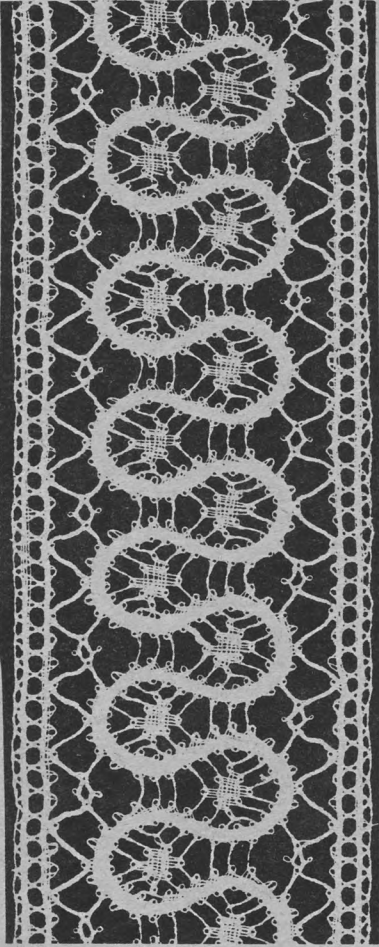

Assisting with the demonstration was Jytte Olsen (phone 487-7982), who has been in Canada for 3½ years — the first 2½ in Vancouver, and the last year in Edmonton.

Jytte was educated as a needlework teacher at the Danish Handcraft Guild's school in Copenhagen (Handarbejdets Fremme), and also worked in the Handcraft Guild's shop for 14 years.

A course in bobbin lace making in September is a possibility if enough people are interested. Please contact us if you would like to participate.

Fascinating Craft—

Bobbin lace making is a fascinating craft which originated in Europe among the nuns in the Italian convents during the Renaissance (14th - 15th centuries). From there it spread across the rest of Europe, settling down in such places as Lille in France; Brussels in Belgium; in Holland; Tønder in Denmark; Vadstena and Darlarne in Sweden.

The Craft in Tønder—

Bobbin lace was at its height in Tønder from 1760 to 1800. At that time laces exported averaged 100,000 rigsdaler yearly. (To compare, at that time one ox cost 7½ rigsdaler.)

Girls were not more than 6 or 7 years old when they began making lace, and training took six years. One of the biggest merchants had up to 1,500 girls working for him.

Making bobbin lace was not an attractive job; it was often poorly paid and was hard on the eyes and back. Many women worked at lace-making during the long, dark winter as an extra job.

Three or four girls often got together to work, and as entertainment the young men came during the evenings to smoke a pipe of tobacco, do some wood-carving, etc. Often they sang folksongs or made riddles.

There were very strict rules about whom one sold to, and a great deal of secrecy about the patterns.

Bobbin lace was frequently used as decoration on the costumes of both men and women; it is often found as decoration on the hat of many Scandinavian folk-costumes.

And as a matter of interest — history tells us that it was a lace-making girl (en kniplerske) who, on a field near Gallehus in south Jutland, found one of the two famous gold horns which date back to the 3rd to 5th century.
